Neon Madonna

Olsen Brothers

She drinks cappuccino at Café Flamingo,
The scene is hot for a midnight plot,
Stretches her feelers at brakers and reelers,
The walls close in and the game begins,
Computer Theresa, just wait till you see her.

She's a neon Madonna oh Neon Madonna, Green champagne flows like rain, And sequencers starts, She's a Neon Madonna oh Neon Madonna, Synthesize, laser eyes, And digital heart.

She showed him his input and picked his output, A cold repeat of a voice so sweet,
And echo of danger a limited stranger,
From audio into video,
Computer Theresa, just wait till you see her.

She's a neon Madonna oh Neon Madonna, Green champagne flows like rain, And sequencers starts, She's a Neon Madonna oh Neon Madonna, Synthesize, laser eyes, And digital heart.
