

Chaco Canyon

Omen

Desert dwellings abandoned long ago
A culture that vanished, where did they go?
They were peaceful souls, charted the heavens
Worshipped the moon and the God of the Sun

Sun Dagger, keeper of time
Reveal to us these ancient crimes
Sun Dagger, will secrets unfold?
The answers to all are buried with the bones

When did this start? How could this be?
A ritual of flesh, hunger yearning
Once thriving now darkness on them bestowed
The truth can be found, proof is abound
Marks on the bones

Sun Dagger, keeper of time
Reveal to us these ancient crimes
Sun Dagger, will secrets unfold?
The answers to all are buried with the bones
