

The Fearless Entity

Omnium Gatherum

Seems to be the hour
Feels real enough
Deems to push forward the hour of the day
You are given more than one chance
And a thousand opportunities
With the mercy of death following every step

Here is eternity
Here where invisible is seen

Reason and folly right across the street
Within everyone the story
The levels in between

Here is eternity
Here where invisible is seen

In be middle
A matter of perspective
How the line is drawn

In the middle
A matter of perspective

Here is eternity
Here where invisible is seen
