The Return

Omnium Gatherum

Pick it up From there Where it was left Aright thing to do Multiply Yours truly Be a star among the stars So far Joining and sharing the light We all are

There is no real burden In helping others Realize the angel Inside a promise

All those years They were never in vain 'Cause the pain It guides the way Back home

Don't you fall back You are worth the honour And if they cry Weep with them And give away All you ever received

Don't you... Enjoy the talks with me Don't you... Respect the privacy
