

As I Lay My Head Down

Other Lives

As I lay my head down
upon that grassy field
winter's passing
soon will fall.
no one will ever know.
the end.
the end.
the end is all we need.

As I lay my head down
upon that grassy field
you won't find me
I'll be gone.
No one will ever know.

oh, look at the years going by no, troubles come into your life
oh, now that you finally have found the end

The end.
The end is all we need
