Colorblind

Otherwise

Find a new
Version of yourself
Through some version of your head

Oh, hell if I know now
You and I should go
I don't know if I could be the one to save you
If I could be the one to let you go
And leave it all behind
It'd leave me colorblind

You
Expected this to last
So, what do
The specter of your past

Oh, hell if I know now
You and I should go
I don't know if I could be the one to save you
If I could be the one to let you go
And leave it all behind
It'd leave me colorblind

I will never know why you try to set free
The monster I refuse to be
I am the root of your disease

Oh, hell if I know now
You and I should go
I don't know if I could be the one to save you
If I could be the one to let you go
And leave it all behind
You're the coward
Always running from your trouble
Always tried to leave me here to die
It'd leave me colorblind
