

Coming For The Throne

Otherwise

Hey kid, who you fighting?
Find yourself so you can stand united
With the voices that are screaming out inside your head
Hey kid, get it together
Every second doesn't last forever
You can be the President or you could end up dead

Take control of the monster inside of you
Focus the rage
All the answers are right there in front of you
Just turn the page

Wake up, when you're burning inside
And everybody's gone & lost their faith in you
Wake up, you better open your eyes
Look around 'cause there's so much love to loose
(Whoa) Heavy is the heart of the one who walks alone
(Whoa) Let 'em know that you're coming for the throne
You're coming for the throne
Now you're coming...

Hey kid, I know a secret
You gotta live a life that you won't regret
Never give up even when you take your final breath

Raising hell on the brink of insanity
Rattle the cage
When your head and your heart are the enemy
Focus the rage

Wake up, when you're burning inside
And everybody's gone & lost their faith in you
Wake up, you better open your eyes
Look around 'cause there's so much love to loose
(Whoa) Heavy is the heart of the one who walks alone
(Whoa) Let 'em know that you're coming for the throne

So don't walk alone...
Don't walk alone...
Oh oh oh...
Wake up...

Wake up, when you're burning inside
And everybody's gone & lost their faith in you
Wake up, you better open your eyes
Look around 'cause there's so much love to loose
(Whoa) Heavy is the heart of the one that walks alone
(Whoa) Time to show 'em that you're coming for the throne
You're coming for the throne
Now you're coming...
