

Crocodile Tears

Otherwise

You can act all you want
I'm not buying your brand
You just might have aces
But you're showing your hand

It's too late to try and cover it up
You can't deny it and I've had enough

You can go on and on
From behind your mask
But you've shown both your faces
And you can't take them back

It's too late to fix
It's already fucked
You make me sick
And I've had enough
Yeah I've had enough

Cause you oughtta know
Your sympathy's bleeding
You won't let it go
And I'm not believing
All your crocodile tears don't work on me
You should dry your lying eyes
So you can see

Why can't you see
Tell me why can't you see
Why can't you see

So what do you want
I'm not taking your hand
You can't lead me blindly
With your head in the sand

It's too late to try and cover it up
You can't deny it and I've had enough
Yeah I've had enough

Cause you oughtta know
Your sympathy's bleeding
You won't let it go
And I'm not believing
All your crocodile tears don't work on me
You should dry your lying eyes
So you can see

Why can't you see
Tell me why can't you see
Why can't you see

And I can see the writing on the wall
The ink is drying on the lines that you draw
I can't move on until I wash it all away

Cause you oughtta know

You won't let it go
All your crocodile tears don't work on me
You should dry your lying eyes
So you can see

Why can't you see
