

Fate Is Your Enemy

Otherwise

Hate, hate me
Tell me how you really feel
I know what you really are
Fake, fake it
The truth is soon to be revealed
Don't cry wolf, just keep it real

Make no mistake
I see the way you twist your words
Only to save yourself
You can't hide from me, behind the lies

'Cause fate is your enemy now
Choke while you swallow it down
You're not fucking innocent, soul of a mannequin
Stop playing games, come face to face
'Cause fate is your enemy

Take the fall
Breaking down your inner walls
I'll destroy the avatar
Make the call
The choice is yours to clean the slate
Time to set the story straight

Make no mistake
I see the way you twist your words on me

'Cause fate is your enemy now
Choke while you swallow it down
You're not fucking innocent, soul of a mannequin
Stop playing games, come face to face
'Cause fate is your enemy

This is a warning...
This is a warning to you...
You can't hide from me
You can't hide from me

Fate is your enemy now
Choke while you swallow it down
You're not fucking innocent, soul of a mannequin
Your playing games

'Cause fate is your enemy now
Choke while you swallow it down
You're not fucking innocent, soul of a mannequin
Stop playing games, come face to face
'Cause fate is your enemy
