

Suffer

Otherwise

Million miles of empty places
Thousand words and I'm still jaded
The irony alone
The suffocating hold
Another day of darkness
Is pushing me and pulling me apart again
Cause all and all I'm complicated
Out here on my own
I'm devastated
I'm fucking wasted
I'm out here alone

So it's easier to suffer
Than give yourself away
The world is on your shoulders
So never lose your pain
It's easier to suffer
Than face yourself today
The war is far from over
It's not over

All of these glasses filled the curses find me
Escape inside the fear that kills me
I guess it's all my fault
Play the victim through it all
So go enjoy your secrets
I don't know if I can make a difference
Cause all and all we're complicated
We're out here on our own
We're devastated
So complicated
We're out here alone

So it's easier to suffer
Than give yourself away
The world is on your shoulders
So never lose your pain
It's easier to suffer
Than face yourself today
The war is far from over
It's not over

So it's easier to suffer
Than give yourself away
The world is on your shoulders
So never lose your pain
It's easier to suffer
Than face yourself today
The war is far from over
It's not over

It's easier to suffer
(It's not over)
(It's not over)
