

Won't Stop

Otherwise

I wanna thank you for lending a love never-ending, so true
I'll be turn all wishing, I'll always be missing you
And I wanna thank you for giving a lifetime worth living to me
Whenever one chapter closes, another one opens, you'll see...
My heart's broken, but it won't stop beating
My heart's broken, but it won't stop beating

There is a place that we're heading
It might be upsetting to hear
But I have to ask you trust me
There really is nothing to fear
And I wanna thank you for lending a love never-ending to me
Whenever one chapter closes, another opens, you'll see...

My heart's broken, but it won't stop beating
My heart's broken, but it won't stop beating
I wanna feel something (I wanna feel something)
I gotta feel something (I gotta feel something)
I gotta feel something just to feel it again
This isn't the end
This isn't the end, my friend
This isn't the end
I'll see you once again
I'll see you once again

My heart's broken, but it won't stop beating
My heart's broken, but it won't stop beating

My heart's broken, but it won't stop beating
My heart's broken, but it won't stop beating
I wanna feel something (I wanna feel something)
I gotta feel something (I gotta feel something)
I gotta feel something just to feel it again
My heart's broken, but it won't stop beating (Oh-oh)
My heart's broken, but it won't stop beating

I wanna thank you for lending a love never-ending to me
Whenever one chapter closes, another opens, you'll see...
