

Nothing Is Innocent

Over the Rhine

We'd wake the dead with the voices in our head
We've gotten used to ignoring the truth
We close our eyes and breathe and eat the lies
That tell us we're so much better than you

Silence is loud
Humility is so proud
Nothing is innocent now

All the king's men will serve scrambled eggs again
When white washed walls come on crashing down
We'll blink and nod and say, how odd
And wonder why old friends don't come around

Silence is loud
Humility is so proud
Nothing is innocent now

The acid rain, we fear the pain
Will blister and burn the skin
But what is more, the fear we bore
Will eat us alive from within

Silence is loud
Humility is so proud
Nothing is innocent now

For you and me, yeah
In the land of the free
Nothing is innocent now
Nothing is innocent now
Nothing is innocent now