

Rhapsodie

Over the Rhine

And i couldn't love you
any more
than i do right now
and The Furies that i feared were Eumenides to lead me here here i linger
and the cadences we hear may grow different in coming years still i'll tell you
that i couldn't love you
any more
and if you should ever leave then i would love you for what you need i could still tell you
any more
than i do right now
