

Shame On You

Palace

Cut like a spider, inside our heads
Building numbers, we're ungrateful dead
Chasing something, 'till this life we part
Oh my darling, we're the same at heart

I believe that the shame's on you
I can see that I'm the same as you
A friend indeed we're cutthroat though
An end to me is blood soaked blue, is blood soaked blue

Shut down our feelings, when the rain has come
No love no bleeding, when you're two to one
Nothing matters, it's all a maze
This world's beyond us, and it's us to blame

I believe that the shame's on you
I can see that I'm the same as you
A friend indeed we're cutthroat though
An end to me is blood soaked blue, is blood soaked blue

I believe that the shame's on you
I can see that I'm the same as you
A friend indeed we're cutthroat though
An end to me is blood soaked blue, is blood soaked blue

The shame's on you
I'm the same as you
Just drown in blue
