Veins

Palace

Somewhere
Under your skin
Running through blood
You're alive

When I'm feeling old
You're on my side
Best be the time

Go back forgotten
And I seem up
Mine packing guitars
All I ever needed

You're mine
My northern star
Lighten up the days
And show me the way

Flood my veins
Flood my veins
Flood my veins
My veins

Now you're running all the time
Saving your time
No more decline

Empty hollow oak line
Saving your time
No more decline

Go back forgotten
I would sleep on
My sweet and divines
All I ever needed
