

Girl That You Love

Panic! at the Disco

Drop every pretense
Drown every sense you own
For the girl that you love
Girl you loathe

Insistent pretext
So what does that make god
To the girl that you love
Girl you loathe

The girl that you love
Girl that you love
Girl that you love
Knows you don't

Denominations surrender all control
To the girl that you love
Girl you loathe
Our indignation to every tainted soul
And the girl you love
All control

The girl that you love
Girl that you love
Girl that you love
Knows you don't

Girl that you love
Girl that you love
Girl that you love
Knows you don't

Followed her
Followed her
Followed her
Followed her home

The girl that you love
The girl that you love
