

Your Fire

Parov Stelar

Bring just your fire
Maybe bring just my mirror?
I feel you
So long have been sleeping violently
Love ain't no way to share your time
So long since I felt this silent

And as you turn away
I'm lost, I mess up, as forced
That she passes by the price trying not to steal life
But they reach you
And as you turn away, I'm lost, I mess up, as forced That she passes by the price trying not to steal life but they reach beneath you

Bring just your fire
Maybe I fear my mirror?
I need you
Far too long we have been silent
I miss you
Way too long since
I've been this silent
