If You Think You Know How to Love Me

Pat Benatar

A breathless drive on a downtown street

Motorbike ride in the mid-day heat

The dust that hung from the desert skies

Run, though we run it still burned our eyes

Oh, yes we can walk on the wild, wild side of life

And our movements traced by a stranger close by your side

And in the shadows of a promise, you can take my hand

And show me the way to understand

So if you think you know how to love me
And you think you know what I need
And if you really, really want me to stay
You've got to lead the way
Yes, if you think you know how to love me
And you think you can stand by me
And if you really, really want me to stay
You've got to lead the way

A reckless night in a nameless town And we moved out of sight, with a silent sound A beach that wept with deserted waves That's where we slept, knowing we'd be safe

Now you may think you can walk on the wild, wild side with me But there's a lot I can learn, and a lot that I've yet to see You know you've got my life lying in your hands It's up to you to make me understand

So if you think you know how to love me And you think you know what I need And if you really, really want me to stay You've got to lead the way Yes, if you think you know how to love me And you think you can stand by me And if you really, really want me to stay You've got to lead the way

So if you think you know how to love me And you think you know what I need And if you really, really want me to stay You've got to lead the way Yes, if you think you know how to love me And you think you can stand by me And if you really, really want me to stay You've got to lead the way
