

Sorry

Pat Benatar

I remember when you loved me
I remember the way it used to be
Then you hurt me and I hurt you
We were fools, as foolish as fools can be
Even if you go I will still remain

R: Here you make me bleed again
When I'm already drownin'
And out here where the air is thin
There's just no mercy
Maybe we could try again
Put the past behind us
And we'd be ready to pretend
And say we're sorry

I remember when you loved me
I remember how good it used to feel
Then we let it just slip away
We were dreamers
Pretending it wasn't real
Even if you go I will still remain
I will wait for you until you return
Even if you go I will still remain

R:

You'll miss me yes, you will
You won't know how much 'til I'm gone
Like the sweet memory of something you used to love
That can't be found that's not around

Even if you go I will still remain here
You make me bleed again
When I'm already drownin'
And out here where the air is thin
There's just no mercy
Maybe we could start again
Put the past behind us
And we'd be ready to pretend
And say we're sorry...
And say we're sorry now
