Whatcha tryin' a do to my heart? Whatcha tryin' a do to my heart? You go around tellin' lies And now you want to compromise Whatcha tryin' a do to my heart?

And you better run, you better hide You better leave from my sight, yeah

Whatcha tryin' a do to my soul? Whatcha tryin' a do to my soul? Well, everything I had was yours And now I'm closin' all the doors Whatcha tryin' a do to my soul?

And you better run, you better hide You better leave from my sight, yeah

I love you oh, I love you so
Can't you see it? Don't you know?
I can't stand your alibis
Your tellin' lies, you drive me wild, yeah

I said, what are ya tryin' a do to my head? Whatcha tryin' a do to my head? Well, now I've gotta draw the line 'Cause you ain't gonna take my mind What are ya tryin' a do to my head?

You better run, you better hide You better leave from my sight

You better run, you better hide You better leave from my sight Let me go, yeah

I said go away, and leave me alone I can't stand you no more
