

Love Has Finally Come

Patti LaBelle

So many years alone with tears
To never know love's way
And now I fear it's much too late
To trust someone, let them come in
To give, and in your heart
Believe it's real and not just game to play

Baby, hold on
We've waited so long
Love has finally come
After so long
Love has finally come
Baby, hold on

I know you've tried before to find
A never-ending, everlasting kind
A love that remains

Just yours alone, steadfast
A friend in need
To be your strength
Someone to mend all of your broken dreams

Baby, hold on
We've waited so long
Love has finally come
After so long
Love has finally come
Baby, hold on

I need you
You know that I want you
You know that I love you

(Love, Love has finally come, so true)
It's so true

I guess what I'm trying to say
Is that I need, I want, I love you, stay
Have a little faith in me

The pain you feel, the tears
All doubt and fear will pass away
And you will see my love will always, it will always be

Baby, hold on
We've waited so long
Love has finally come
After so long
Love has finally come
Baby, hold on

Baby, hold on
We've waited so long
Love has finally come
After so long
Love has finally come

Baby, hold on
