

You And Me

Patti LaBelle

It can be so easy
It can be so easy
It can be so easy
It can be so easy

It's warm under the covers
But I can't sleep at night
Where are all the arms that held me tight tonight?
Where are all the dreams that lull me to the morning light?

Oh, you and me
Were meant to be together
It's so sad to see
That you're afraid to fall in love with me
How hard can it be?

You say you love me
Your words are nothing new
But you can't love you too afraid
You lose, you choose
To hide behind a child
You'd rather die than make a move

Oh, you and me
Were meant to be together
It's so sad to see
That you're afraid to fall in love with me
How hard can it be?

Oh, I'm so lonely
So lonely, if you only
You will see
That you and me
Were meant to be
Oh, you and me
Were meant to be together
It's so sad to see
That you're afraid to fall in love with me
How hard can it be to fall in love with me?

It can be so easy
It can be so easy
It can be so easy
It can be so easy
