

Your Love Is Reaching Me

Paul Baloche

I love because You first loved me
A sinner saved by grace
You exchanged Your blameless life for mine
A debt I can't repay
I don't deserve Your favor
Still You love me without measure

Your love is reaching me and I'm responding to it
Your love is changing me as I surrender to it
I'm holding nothing back
I give You every part
My soul has been released
Your love has captured my heart

Your love has captured my heart
Your love is reaching me and I'm responding to it
Your love is changing me as I surrender to it
I'm holding nothing back
I give You every part
My soul has been released
Your love has captured my heart
Your love has captured my heart
Your love is reaching me
Your love has captured my heart
Your love has captured my heart
