Paul Kelly

I took a woman late last night guess I ended up with two One was the woman lying by my side the other one was you

Mixing up these faces

I've been hearing rumours on the phone say you're coming back to me I've been seeing movies all alone
They all star you and me

Sister Anne Maria with the English lips they always bring it down on me Sister Anne Maria with the Spanish hips
they always bring it down on me
