Standing on the Street of Early Sorrows

Paul Kelly

It was just a quarter mile To your house in Kensington It was always ninety-five degrees (Hey Julie)

Walking to the swimming pool February back to school All that summer you were cool (Hey Julie)

I'm standing on the street of early sorrows

You never know just what you've lost Until it's yours and then it's dust But you remain and never rust (Hey Julie)

I'm standing on the street of early sorrows
