The World Tonight

Paul McCartney

I saw you sitting at the center of a circle Everybody
Everybody wanted something from you
I saw you sitting there

I saw you swaying to the rhythm of the music Caught you playing
Caught you praying to the voice inside you
I saw you swaying there

I don't care what you want to be I go back so far, I'm in front of me It doesn't matter what they say They're giving the game away hey hey

I can see the world tonight Look into the future See it in a different light I can see the world tonight

I heard you listening to a secret conversation You were crying You were trying not to let them hear you I heard you listening in

Never mind what they want to do You got a right, to your point of view It doesn't matter what they say They're giving the game away hey hey

I can see the world tonight Look into the future See it in a different light I can see the world tonight

I saw you hiding from a flock of paparazzi You were hoping You were hoping that the ground would swallow you I saw you hiding there

I don't care what you want to be
I go back so far, I'm in front of me
It doesn't matter what they say
They're giving the game away

I can see the world tonight Look into the future See it in a different light I can see the world tonight

Look into the future

I can see the world tonight

See it in a different light I can see the world tonight $I^{\text{lišten}}$ see the world tonight
