

Greed

Pay money To my Pain

Hey wise guy, I'm talking to you
How's your business? Everything is going good?
You get some money from the fucking toilet
Wash your hands before you give me your paw

Yo shit-head, what's up motherfucker?!
I haven't seen you while you've been in jail?
I've got some great news for you
Fat-ass gonna pay for a fucking bail bond

You got the hump cuz your money dropped off
How much you need, I can lend it to you

You should realize money doesn't talk
The end of money is the end of your life

Greed

Hey asshole, are you still there?
Do you need help? Let me load the gun of your
Now you see who's the victim
Are you the hunter or the hunted?

Isolate yourself from society
You don't even have any clue you freak
What're you gonna do? You gonna pull the trigger?
It's up to you, that's the worst escape

You're in misery cuz you're fucking broke
Clean up the toilet where you've been

You should realize money doesn't talk
The end of money is the end of your life

Greed

Now what do you see? Open your eyes
Greed
