

Let Me Be The One You Need

Peabo Bryson

Looks like it's finally down to you, you and me
Well, if you're giving up, I won't hold you down
If you want to be free
Yes, I'm still waiting for the light to see
But I'm holding up, I wanna be around
If it's love that you need

You are my life, everything I need
Some things in this world were meant to be
And I'm strong enough for the both of us
You can lean on me
But if I'm not the one you want
Let me be the one you need
I really wanna be
Let me be the one you need

Seems like our better days have come, come and gone
If you had enough and it's been too long
Go on and be free
We can't go this way beside right or way
Well, the road is rough, but I'm hangin' on
If it's love that you need

You are my life, everything I need
Some things in this world were meant to be
Well, I'm strong enough for the both of us
You can lean on me, on me
And if I'm not the one you want
Let me be the one you need
The one you need

I want to be the one you need, oh, yeah
I may not be the one want, no
I'm the one you need, yeah, yeah
I may not be the one want
I'm the one, I'm the one you need
Oh, yeah, yeah, yeah
I may not be the one want
I'm the one you need, you need
