

You Oughta Be Mine

Peggy Lee

You oughta be mine
Baby you oughta be mine
I'm spending my time
Dreaming of you, dreaming of you, need a chance to prove to you
I've wanted you so
Baby I've wanted you so
You, you oughta know
Once I get my arms around you, I won't let you go
So why keep wasting the time
Why keep me walking alone, lone, lone, lone, lone
I'm confessing that I, I need you for my own, own, own
So why should we wait
Let me know, don't be too late
Look, look and you'll find
I oughta belong to you and you oughta be mine
So why, why keep wasting the time
Why keep me walking alone, lone, lone, lone, lone
I'm confessing that I, I need you for my own, own, own, own
So why should we wait
Let me know, don't be too late
Look, look and you'll find
I oughta belong to you and you just oughta be mine
