

If There Is Someone Lovelier Than You

Perry Como

If there is someone lovelier than you
Then I am blind, a man without a mind
If there is someone lovelier than you

But no, I'm not blind, my eyes have traveled everywhere
In hopes that I might find, a creature half so fair
By all that's beautiful, such beauty can't be true!

By all that's beautiful, such beauty can't be true!
