

Early Morning Dreams

Pete Townshend

You are safe from harm on the grid
You are safe from harm

This is the dream that I wake up dreaming
Lovin' my lover under dawn-pink skies
A perfect design that I wake up scheming
What I recall when I first open my eyes

This is the tune that you're always hearing
What you'll remember when you've broken the ties
We're dancing together as the sun is appearing Again and again you awake in surprise

Early morning dreams
You feel so tender-you feel so wet
You feel so secure so deep in love and yet the feeling is fleet ing
You're a fugitive, safe at last
Your heart is beating
Will you relive the recent past?

Early morning dreams come true
I've proved it now that I'm here with you
You are here by my side
I'm siding with you
Early morning dreams come true
