

Arrow

Phil Keaggy

My love is an arrow in a straight line,
I know your name but do you know mine?
Listen to me, I come quickly.
My word is a hammer, it'll shatter lies.
My life it was given, open up your eyes.
Listen to me, I come quickly.
My love is an arrow in straight line.
I aim to win, will you be born again?
My heart breaks in two when you ignore me,
My heart breaks for you to come before me.
Oh come to me.
Will you come in, will you be born again?
My love is an arrow in a straight line,
My aim is to see your life shine,
This road is an arrow in a straight line.
And your aim is to make it on time.
My love is an arrow in a straight line,
My aim is to see your life shine,
My love is an arrow in a straight line,
So come on let me see your light shine.
Shine, shine, shine, shine, shine.
