

Father-daughter Harmony

Phil Keaggy

Of all the dreams that I have had
There is one I share with you,
A better world where there is no sadness or pain.
A place where we can be a loving family,
Of every race, of every land at peace.
I only know that I love you,
And yes, it's true you feel the same.
Why can it be for everyone of us
Who walk this earth of men, women, and children,
When will this dream of mine come true.
As I love you, and you love me,
Together we make a father-daughter harmony.
There is always hope and love right here.
As I love you, and you love me,
Together we make a father-daughter harmony.
Side by side we will always be,
Side by side in harmony.
When I think of those without love
Within this hurting world.
It makes me sad to think of all their pain.
We need to stop the hate
Because it's getting late,
Tear down the wall and let us all walk through.
As I love you, and you love me,
Together we make a father-daughter harmony.
There is always hope and love right here.
As I love you, and you love me,
Together we make a father-daughter harmony.
Side by side we will always be,
Side by side in harmony.
