

Movie

Phil Keaggy

There's a movie playing inside of your mind now.
You're reviewing many events in your life now.
There's a foolish tendency just to ignore it all,
And you do this knowing full well
There's a curtain call.

Saw a lot of empty days, eternity uncertain.
Concentrated on empty ways
To keep your head from hurtin'.

There's a movie portraying the life of a user,
You're on TV, it's breaking your heart child abuser.
Does your conscious still have a voice,
Do you hear it at all?
Call it nonsense, you have a choice,
Do you fear at all?

Saw a lot of empty days, eternity uncertain.
Concentrated on empty ways
To keep your head from hurtin'.

There's a movie playing inside of your mind now.
You're reviewing many events in your life now.
