

Rejoice

Phil Keaggy

Now the time of the harvest is near,
Don't be blind and take heed how you hear.
Now there are many saying which way to go,
And you listen but still you don't know.

He is the Shepherd that will give you rest
All ye heavy laden.
He who asks will receive and
All who seek will find Him
Can you dig what this means?
All the angels in Heaven above
Rejoice when there's a soul saved.
All the angels in Heaven above
Rejoice when there's a soul saved.

Don't close your eyes,
Don't let your heart become cold
What has been said is what has to be told.
Don't be deceived, let the blind lead the blind
But now receive and life you will find.

He is the Shepherd that will give you rest
All ye heavy laden.
He who asks will receive and
All who seek will find Him
Can you dig what this means?
All the angels in Heaven above
Rejoice when there's a soul saved.
All the angels in Heaven above
Rejoice when there's a soul saved.

All true saints of Jesus Christ
Rejoice when there's a soul saved.
All true saints of Jesus Christ
Rejoice when there's a soul saved.
All the angels in Heaven above
Rejoice when there's a soul saved.
