

Walk In Two Worlds

Phil Keaggy

When you walk in two worlds
Hold your head up high
When you walk in two worlds
Keep your sights to the sky.

Remember you're in this place
But of another race
You move to a different pace
The drumbeat of the sky
Walking in two worlds.

(Walk, walk, walk, walk)

When you walk in two worlds
You have made a choice
And though many call you
Follow just one voice.

Then you would recognize
The truth in the midst of lies
Seeing through different eyes
A people set apart
Walking in two worlds.

(Walk, walk, walk, walk)

I've been walking in two worlds
It's like a fight on a tight rope
Tempted by the darkness
But drawn to this ray of hope.

(Walk, walk, walk, walk)

Remember you're in this place
But of another race
You move to a different pace
The drumbeat of the sky
Walking in two worlds.
