

What You Are Inside

Phil Keaggy

Keep no secrets from those who love you
From those whom you love have nothing to hide.
Just be who you really are,
Be on the out what you are inside.

Walk by the light of the Lord's written word,
And let His mind ever be your guide.
Leave no room for bitterness,
Be on the out what you are inside.

Don't compromise when you know it's the truth,
Don't let peer pressure turn you from the right,
His strength is within your heart,
Be on the out what you are inside.
