

Reckless Ride Of Faith

Phillips, Craig & Dean

Yeah, yeah

Keep on cruising to the pace society accepts
Staying steady, well conformed
But I must confess
I'm uncomfortable in this comfort zone
I'm ready for some risk
Let's cross some lines and make some waves
Give this road a little twist

What do you say we betray this boulevard
How 'bout we go over the curb
And through the yard
Give this beaten path a goodbye wave
No more playin' it safe
What do you say we close our eyes
Let go of the wheel
Take a reckless ride of faith

I have tried to steer the way
It's time to let it go
Takin' Jesus at His word
That He will take control
So let's mash the gas for what we believe
And land where we end up
'Cause we can't taste the thrill of faith
Unless we're racing for the cup

What do you say we betray this boulevard
How 'bout we go over the curb
And through the yard
Give this beaten path a goodbye wave
No more playin' it safe
What do you say we close our eyes
Let go of the wheel
Take a reckless ride of faith

'Cause what's the point in fitting in Going with the flow
Let's turn some heads, engage debate
And dare to jump this road

What do you say we betray this boulevard
How 'bout we go over the curb
And through the yard
Give this beaten path a goodbye wave
No more playin' it safe
What do you say we close our eyes
Let go of the wheel
Take a reckless ride of faith

Take a reckless ride of faith, yeah
