

A Great Day For Freedom

Pink Floyd

Cmi

1. On the day the wall came down
They threw the locks onto the ground

Fmi

Gsus4

And with glasses high we raised a cry for

G

freedom had arrived

2. On the day the wall came down
The Ship of Fools had finally ran aground
Promises lit up the night like paper doves in flight

F

R: I dreamed you had left my side

No warmth, not even pride remained

F

And even though you needed me

G

It was clear that I could not do a thing for you

3. Now life devalues day by day
As friends and neighbours turn away
And there's a change that, even with regret, cannot be undone

4. Now frontiers shift like desert sands
While nations wash their bloodied hands
Of loyalty, of history, in shades of grey

R: I woke to the sound of drums
The music played, the morning sun streamed in
I turned and I looked at you
And all but the bitter residues slipped away
... slipped away
