Veronique

Pink Martini

Black is the night Black as my heart Dark hours since we've been apart A voice in the wind Keeps calling your name Veronique

November came And with it died our love Leaves fall down Clock's chiming Please come back my darling One love

The letters I write I never shall mail The world is gray Wrapped in a veil No step on the stairs No one rings the bell For Veronique

November came And with it died our love Tears fall down Clock's chiming Don't leave me my darling One love

The letters I write I never shall mail The world is gray Wrapped in a veil No step on the stairs No one rings the bell For Veronique Veronique