

Kiss Of Death

Pink Turns Blue

Something you don't want - it makes you smooth and mild
Something you don't care for - makes you run all wild
Something you can't stand - comes straight from your heart
Something you don't care - it's learning from your faults

Oh, take my kiss of death - sleeping, all your life
Take my kiss of death - time to meet the end
Take my kiss of death - walking on the edge
Oh, take my kiss of death - reborn from inside

You never dreamt to be - to see yourself like this
You never thought that you could get lost in the maze
You never thought you drowned - you're deep on the ground
You never thought you'd leave the safety inside

Oh, take my kiss of death - sleeping, all your life
Take my kiss of death - time to meet the end
Take my kiss of death - walking on the edge
Oh, take my kiss of death - reborn from inside

Feeling cold because you're surrounded by your past
Feeling cold because our world is falling apart
Feeling cold because you're lost in a purple haze
Feeling cold because there's nothing left to praise
