Struck By The Chord

Plankeye

Winded again by my broken silence; love's become a noise, as my tongue's on fire My heart consumed, struck by the chord of pride; woe is me I sh all come down I shall come down Can't seem to see me, my words are much too loud, as my tongue' s on fire Easily ensnared, strengthen my hands which hang down Quench the violence of my fire, of my fire... Precious blood of Christ, bring death that i might see life I see new life, I shall come down; I see new life, I shall come down
