You Are For Me

Plankeye

when i'm away you never change your love it stays when mine it fades men will say what they say it doesn't change a single thing for you are for me another day it burned me up words are cruel like children the strangest thing i was born for this as sparks they fly upward but you are for me i got the shakes for the lions outside are awake it's feeding time and it's my life that is the storyline the truth is strong and she holds me she keeps me moving on when it gets overwhelming your day will come hold on
