Hey, little girl with the long blonde hair
The teacher let you out of school
I've been around for a long, long time
Ain't nobody's fool
Leading me on with your big blue eyes
Saying it all with your stare
Well, I've been there before, no, there's a law
Making me feel uneasy

You made no reservation
You've got no invitation
Maybe this is your cancellation
I can't take a chance to be alone with you, ooh
There's trouble in your tantalizing eyes

I've got to admit the temptation ('tation)
Just get in the bed with me
Thinking 'bout self-reservation (reservation)
No more crying is a remedy

Hey, little girl, won't you give me a break?
Lay it on some other guy
Can't hold back any longer and it's getting stronger
I need to be satisfied
