

Love In The Danger Zone

Player

So they say your intentions are evil
But I keep on refusing to see
You may be from hell, but I'm under your spell
And it sure looks like heaven to me

I'm aware of impending disaster
And I feel my resistance is low
Though the signs are all red, there's a voice in my head
Tellin' me that I must go

Danger, I'm caught in a web of confusion
Danger, I know that you're pointing the bone
Danger, I'm out on the edge of my reason
Love in the danger zone

I'm completely bereaved of my senses
Every time I look into your eyes
There's an evil inside, sets me on fire

Tell me some more of your lies

Danger, I'm caught in a web of confusion
Danger, I know that you're pointing the bone
Danger, I'm out on the edge of my reason
Love in the danger zone

Well, I knew your intentions were evil
But I kept on refusing to see
You're a creature from hell, but I'm under your spell
Still looks like heaven to me

Danger, I'm caught in a web of confusion
Danger, I know that you're pointing the bone
Danger, I'm out on the edge of my reason
Love in the danger zone
