

Heaven Knows

Point Of Grace

Heaven knows I wonder why bad things happen
To really good people, like airplanes crashing
It's hard to imagine there's a reason for that
And heaven knows our stumble, it don't make any sense
Why cancer took my daddy even though he never smoke the cigaret te
Where is the justice in that?
Now I've decided that I can't find it

Heaven knows
It's way beyond my control
And so I'm trying to let go
And understand
That I didn't make this plan
This crazy love has shown me that even when I don't
Heaven knows

Heaven knows my sins, all my regrets
And I bet God is laughing cause I keep planning big things for myself
When it's out of my hands
Yeah I've decided I cannot like it
