

Two Roads

Point Of Grace

There's a way that seems right unto a man
But in the end, it's the way of death

I once knew a good good man, did good works all his days
Gave money to the poor, never had a bad word to say
But in his heart he held a high opinion of himself
He said "I don't need God or anybody else's help"

Two roads stand before you
Which one will you choose?
You've got one eye on the devil
And God's got His eye on you
Wide is the way of the wicked
But bright is the way of the truth
In the end, sink or swim
The choice is up to you

O' we all've got that somethin' keeps us struggling everyday
But the fork in the road is up ahead for every sinner, every saint
I want to hear you when you're whisperin'
To tremble when you shout
Truth is in your spirit 'cus the Spirit bares it out

Two roads stand before you
Which one will you choose?
You've got one eye on the devil
And God's got His eye on you
Wide is the way of the wicked
But bright is the way of the truth
In the end, sink or swim
The choice is up to you

Is it your lies? Is it your pride that you can't cover up?
You're in too deep and you can't sleep
Ain't it been long enough
Come to me if are weary, heavy laden, there is rest
He knows all your secrets anyway
Wanna get it off your chest
Get it off your chest

Two roads stand before you
Which one will you choose?
One leads to destruction
One leads me to You

Lead me Lord, o' lead me Lord, lead me Lord
Two roads stand before you
Which one will you choose?
Two roads stand before me
Which one will I choose?
One leads to destruction
One leads me Lord to You
