

What I Already Know

Point Of Grace

Life has been a teacher, an enemy and a friend
And at times I've been a sinner and a saint
I've been known to lose my temper, my patience and my pride
But I've never lost the knee to pray

Lord, I don't need some truth reveal to me
Or some sacred thing to hold
Well, all I really need is just a little more faith
To believe what I already know

You said You'd never leave me
You'd walk right by my side
Right now all I feel is alone
Cause I can't see Your angels watching over me
Oh, but Jesus loves me, the Bible tells me so

Lord, I don't need some mountain moved for me
Or some miracle to be hold
All I really need is just a little more faith
To believe what I already know

I know there are much bigger problems than mine
But Lord, if You get the time

I don't need the waters to part for me
Or to see those streets of gold
All I really need is just a little more faith
To believe what I already know

Yeah, the secret to walking down life's road
Is to believe what I already know
