

Allergies

Pond

Everyday we wake outside the sea
Forgetting all of our allergies

To the world

Space was a lie
But the sun still shines
Down on me
But you don't have to tell me
That the waves will crash
Easily

Everyday we wake outside the sea
Forgetting all of our allergies
And we don't have to sit around for weed

This world

Space was a lie
And the sun still shines
Down on me
But you don't have to tell me
That the waves will crash
Easily
