Colourflow in Mind

Porcupine Tree

I cross the city backwards
There's a lot of soul to find
A million ways to loose control
I've got colourflow in mind

I find a safer haven
And get myself a line
Feel the urge to climb the walls
I've got colourflow in mind

Turn on, tune in, shut down
It's a way to pass the time
Check out of my braincell again
I've got colourflow in mind
